

Possible Gods/Goddesses to Explore:

Great List of Gods/Goddesses:

<https://www.ancient.eu/article/885/egyptian-gods---the-complete-list/>

Gods as Bosses

- Cavern Deities
 - Lived in the underworld
 - Punished the wicked; helped the souls of the justified dead
 - Serpent like
 - Possible boss in Midnight Necropolis
- Four sons of Horus
 - Duamutef, Happy, Imset, and Qebehsenuf (keb-eh-sen-oof)
 - Trials of the Sons of Horus?
 - Watched over the dead; 4 canopic jars
 - Each had an internal organ to protect, and was watched over by a specific goddess
- Forty-Two Judges
 - Possible background elements in the Hall of Osiris
- Maahes, The Scarlet Lord
 - Powerful solar god
 - Protector of the innocent and depicted as a lion headed man with a long knife
 - Linked with Ma'at (the feather thing)
 - Vengeful nature
- Pakhet, She Who Scratches
 - Associated with the vengeful aspect of Sekhmet and the Justice of Isis
 - Possible boss in midnight necropolis

Gods as NPC's

- Hraf-haf, celestial ferryman (he who looks behind him)
 - Rude and unpleasant
 - Ferries the souls of the justified dead across lily lake to the shores of paradise
 - The souls had to find ways to be courteous in response; man was petty af
- Heka
 - Patron god of magic and medicine
 - Primordial source of power in the Universe; existed before all other gods

- Depicted carrying a staff and a knife; physicians were known as Priests of Heka
- Killed two serpents and put them on his staff as a show of power
- Possible health vendor?
- Ihy
 - God of Music and Joy
 - Filler NPC in hub area
- Iah (Yah)
 - God of the Moon
 - Gambled against Thoth for 5 days of moonlight and lost
 - Possible funny interactions between Iah, Toth, and Nut
 - Filler NPC in hub area
- Khenmu
 - The Great Potter
 - Fashioned humans from clay from the Nile
 - Depicted as Ram headed god
 - Possible Vendor, selling clay items
- Ra (in his various forms)
 - Would be funny to see a single NPC with different personalities
 - Khepera (morning), Ra (midday), and Atmu (evening)
- Nefertum
 - god of perfume and aromas (shop owner?)
- Neith
 - War goddess
 - “Mistress of the Bow”
 - Became a prominent funerary goddess
 - Possible interesting dialogue between Horus, Set, and Herself
 - Settled who should rule egypt (horus or Set)
 - Possible shop owner, selling weapon upgrades
- Sed
 - Ancient Jackal deity
 - Funny dialogue with Anubis
 - Filler NPC in Hub area